The Honorable Ronnie Abrams
United States District Court
Southern District of New York
40 Foley Square
New York, NY 10007

Re: Tony Spires v. MetLife Group, Inc., et al., 18-cv-04464-RA

Judge Abrams:

We represent Defendants MetLife Group, Inc. and Douglas Rayvid (collectively, “Defendants”)<sup>1</sup> and write to request a short, two week extension of time to submit Defendants’ motion for summary judgment. Defendant’s moving brief is currently due on September 14, 2020, and with the extension of time, would be due on September 28, 2020. Defendants request that the deadline for Plaintiff’s opposition brief and Defendants’ reply brief also be extended by two weeks. This is Defendants’ first request for an extension of time concerning the summary judgment briefing schedule and does not affect any other scheduled dates in this action. Plaintiff consents to this request.

<sup>1</sup> Former defendants Ricardo Anzaldúa and Tom Luckey have been dismissed without prejudice. Dkt. Nos. 63 and 66.

If Defendants' request is granted, the briefing schedule would be as follows:

- September 28, 2020 – Defendants' moving brief due.
- October 26, 2020 – Plaintiff's opposition brief due.
- November 23, 2020 – Defendants' reply brief due.

The Parties are available at the Court's convenience to discuss the aforementioned schedule. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

/s/ Melissa C. Rodriguez
